

Module 6 ONLINE LINGUISTIC RESOURCES AND INFORMATION RETRIEVAL

Introduction

Internet has become the main linguistic resource for translators. Acquiring knowledge about the relevant types of these linguistic resources and their techniques to better access should be one of the most significant change in the professional profile of translator.

Module Description

Introduction to online linguistic resources: identification and use of various online linguistic resources like online thesaurus, online corpora and online termbanks. The course will also present the basics of information retrieval., techniques of how to access the "invisible Internet" and techniques of how to do a comparative analysis of subject directories.

Training topics

- Online termbanks
- Online thesauri
- Online corpora
- Information retrieval and search engines
- Invisible Internet (or what you cannot retrieve)
- Indexing: Principles, processes and practices
- Workshop: Indexing, metadata creation and information retrieval